Course Overview

Workplace Violence Prevention training helps your employees spot and respond to potential and real incidents to help keep the workplace safe. Designed to help you meet the requirements of SB 553, California's workplace violence prevention law, it includes references to your organization's workplace violence prevention plan. This course covers what workplace violence is, and how to recognize and respond to violent incidents.

Discussion Topics:

- The employer's plan, how to obtain a copy of the employer's plan at no cost, and how to participate in development and implementation of the employer's plan.
- The definitions and requirements of Cal. Lab. Code § 6401.9
- How to report workplace violence incidents or concerns to the employer or law enforcement without fear of reprisal.
- Workplace violence hazards specific to the employees' jobs, the corrective measures the employer has implemented, how to seek assistance to prevent or respond to violence, and strategies to avoid physical harm.
- The violent incident log required and how to obtain copies.
